MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents/Carers,

This week, our Y3 and Y4 children presented a wonderful retelling of the Easter story, despite the heat in the hall! Their singing was beautiful, and they all remembered their lines! Well done to everyone, as it was a real team effort. Thank you to the staff who have worked tirelessly to get the children ready. They all did a wonderful job.

We also enjoyed a violin assembly this week, with class 3/4L – thank you to Mrs Wheyway, from DPA, who has worked hard teaching children the violin. They all played beautifully!

Today, we are saying goodbye to Mrs Ho, one of our lunchtime supervisors. We wish her all the very best for the future.

I hope you all enjoy a relaxing Easter break over the next two weeks and, hopefully, the weather will be kind to us! I look forward to seeing all children return on Monday 28th April.

Many thanks, Jon Stevens.
