MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents/Carers,

As you know, Mrs Rogers and Mr Kelly have been off school due to surgery. Mrs Rogers has had a knee replacement and Mr Kelly has had an operation on his Achilles tendon. Both have made a full recovery and will be returning to school, with Mrs Rogers returning next week and Mr Kelly the week after. I would like to thank Mr Lock for doing a wonderful job in teaching Mr Kelly's class in his absence.

Congratulations to the winners of the KS2 Christmas writing competition (see photo below) who each received a £10 gift card. Miss Bird was very pleased with all of the entries, which encouraged children to read a book and write a description of a character from the book. This is a great way to encourage children to read! Please keep a look out for the next writing competition which is coming soon!

Unfortunately, the KS1 door to the playground has broken and is currently out of use. However, we are hoping that it will be fixed in the next few days. We apologise for any inconvenience that this has caused when dropping off/collecting children.

Have a lovely weekend.

Many thanks,

Jon Stevens.
