MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Dear Parents/Carers,

One of our cleaners, Miss Lawrence, has retired after 24 years working at school. We are sad to see her leave but wish her all the very best for the future, and would like to thank her for her dedicated service.

Thank you to the parents/carers who came in for the phonics workshops over the last two weeks. We hope you found it valuable and that it gave an insight into how we teach phonics at school.

On Monday, the Express and Star are running an article on Bromley Hills. Keep an eye out for it!

Have a lovely weekend.

Many thanks, Jon Stevens.

KS2 DRAMA WORKSHOP

KS2 children enjoyed taking part in a 'West End' drama workshop this week.

KS2 AUTHOR VISIT

KS2 enjoyed an online author visit from Alex Falase-Koya who wrote the book series 'The Breakfast Club Adventures' with Marcus Rashford. They learnt all about Alex, his books and got to ask him some questions about being an author, as well as hearing a chapter from one of his books.
