

Bromley Hills Primary School

Privacy Notice (How we use information about Governors and Volunteers - GIAS)

Bromley Hills Primary School collects and processes personal data relating to Governors and Volunteers who are engaged to work with us. Bromley Hills Primary School is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses the data and to meeting its data protection obligations. This privacy notice will inform you about why Bromley Hills Primary School collects and processes a range of information about you.

The categories of information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, address and contact details, where appropriate details of your bank, national insurance number, information about your marital status, next of kin, dependants and emergency contacts)
- special categories of data including characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group)
- information about your engagement with us (such as start dates, terms and conditions of your engagement, your role as a Governor or volunteer, hours engaged, activities you have engaged with)
- qualifications (such as skills and experience, where relevant)
- information about your criminal record.
- details of any disciplinary or grievance procedures in which you have been involved (such as any warnings issued to you and related correspondence)
- information about medical or health conditions (such as whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments)
- Photographs (where appropriate)

Bromley Hills Primary School collects this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be collected through a Governor or Volunteer application form; obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence; from forms completed by you at the start of or during your engagement; from correspondence with you; or through meetings or other interaction with you.

In some cases, Bromley Hills Primary School may collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers and information from criminal records checks permitted by law.

Why we collect and use this information

The personal data collected is essential, in order for the school to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements.

We collect and use governor and volunteer information, for the following purposes:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of who is operating within the school and how everyone is deployed
- ensure we meet statutory requirements in terms of our Governing body.
- maintain accurate and up-to-date records and contact details (including details of who to contact in the event of an emergency)

- operate and keep a record of disciplinary and grievance processes, to ensure acceptable conduct within the workplace
- operate and keep a record of performance and related processes, to undertake skills analysis, and for succession planning and management purposes.
- to ensure that we comply with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities and meet our obligations under health and safety law
- respond to and defend against legal claims
- maintain and promote equality in the workplace.
- to ensure Safeguarding requirements are met.

Some special categories of personal data, such as information about health or medical conditions, is processed to carry out obligations under Health and Safety and Disability Discrimination Act (such as those in relation to Governors/Volunteers with disabilities).

The lawful basis on which we process this information

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis/bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

6.1(a) The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes, in their role a Governor (Article 6, 1 (a))

6.1(c) For the purpose named above in accordance with the legal basis of Legal Obligation.

6.1(e) Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

For example: Working together to Safeguard Children Guidelines (DfE).

All maintained school governing bodies, under section 538 of the Education Act 1996 and academy trusts, under the Academies Financial Handbook have a legal duty to provide the governance information as detailed above.

In terms of processing special category data the following will apply:

9.2(c) Processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject

9.2(g) Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest and is authorised by domestic law.

Under UK legislation the lawful basis is given under the following Acts:

- Section 13(a) of the Education Act 1996
- Section 22 and Schedule 6 of the Education Act 2002
- Section 31(1a & b),(2a) of the School Governance (Constitution) (England) Regulations 2012.

Collecting governor and volunteer information

We collect personal information from forms completed by governors / volunteers (e.g. application form, contact forms), DBS checks, copies of documents confirming your identity (e.g. passports, driving licences, birth certificates), emergency contact forms, medical clearance forms.

Governor and volunteer data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it may be requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing governor and volunteer information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please visit <https://bromleyhills.sch.life/page/detail/school-policies> to view our retention policy. We also use the IRMS Toolkit for Schools as a reference, <https://irms.org.uk/page/SchoolsToolkit>

We create and maintain a personnel file for each governor and volunteer. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work in school.

Once your duties with us have ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our record retention schedule.

Details of where we store data can be found on our Information Asset Register.

Who we share governor and volunteer information with

We routinely share this information with:

- our local authority to meet our legal obligation to share certain information about school Governors
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Police forces, courts – e.g. to assist them discharging their legal duties
- GovernorHub - GovernorHub is used by the Local Authority to communicate with School Governors. It contains details of the name, address and contact details of the School's Governors.
- SIPS Governance – SIPS are engaged to clerk our governor meeting. They are provided with the following information for our Governors: details of the name, address and contact details, terms of service.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities. We are required to share information about our governors with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 538 of the Education Act 1996

All data is entered manually on the GIAS system and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Why we share information

We do not share information about you with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns
- the Department for Education
- your family or representatives
- educators and examining bodies
- our regulator, Ofsted
- suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governance
- financial organisations
- central and local government
- our auditors
- survey and research organisations
- health and social welfare organisations
- professional advisers and consultants
- charities and voluntary organisations
- police forces, courts, tribunals
- professional bodies

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact:

How Government uses your data

The governor data that we lawfully share with the DfE via GIAS:

- will increase the transparency of governance arrangements
- will enable schools and the department to identify more quickly and accurately individuals who are involved in governance and who govern in more than one context
- allows the department to be able to uniquely identify an individual and in a small number of cases conduct checks to confirm their suitability for this important and influential role

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/national-database-of-governors>

Note: Some of these personal data items are not publicly available and are encrypted within the GIAS system. Access is restricted to a small number of DfE staff who need to see it in order to fulfil their official duties. The information is for internal purposes only and not shared beyond the department, unless the law allows it.

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

Under the terms of the UK Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the Department:

- if they are processing your personal data

- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at the address below:
<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>
